Mark Bishop - caboodl

Hi, my name's Val Wilson.

I've been involved in online marketing for a long time and I spend a lot of my time testing products, creating bonuses and looking for simple ways to help people make money online.

Most of the methods I see are far more complicated than they need to be.

That's one of the reasons I liked the idea you're about to discover.

Hi,

You probably requested this because you saw a short video online about making money online and commented to get more details... so here they are.

The system I am about to share with you simply involves giving away free stuff - which might seem like an unusual thing to do.

After all, why would someone spend time creating content only to give it away for free? And how can that possibly make you any money?

It's a fair question.

The answer is that, when done properly, giving away useful information can be one of the simplest ways of introducing people to products that genuinely solve their problems. And if they choose to buy those products - which they often do, provided you follow a simple formula - you earn commission (at no extra cost to them).

That's what affiliate marketing is.

And that's exactly what this report is about.

The PDF isn't what makes the money. Curiosity does. The PDF simply satisfies that curiosity and introduces the reader to a product that solves the problem they were already interested in.

Not a secret loophole.

Not a magic trick.

Just a straightforward business model that removes much of the complexity that usually puts beginners off affiliate marketing.

The Problem With Most Affiliate Marketing Advice

If you've ever looked into affiliate marketing before, you've probably heard this before:

“It’s easy to make money online from recommending other people's digital products, and getting paid commission as a result (a percentage of what a customer spends).”

The reality is - it ISN'T that easy.

The Truth is that to actually make money from other people's digital products (through affiliate marketing) you would usually need to create at least one website page.

Then find a way of sending people who might be interested in the product you’re recommending to your page (they call this targeted traffic).

And lastly, work out a way of selling the product to those people (which is called converting, or conversion).

And that is a big problem, because honestly, most of us don't know how to do any of it..

A Simpler Approach

The strategy I recently came across works in a different way - it's called caboodl

Instead of asking people to join an email list first...

Instead of sending them through a complicated funnel...

Instead of trying to sell immediately...

You simply create short pieces of content that encourage interested people to request a useful PDF.

When someone asks for it, you send it to them.

Just like you asked for this one.

Inside that PDF is helpful information together with a natural recommendation for a product that solves the problem being discussed.

It's simple.

It feels natural.

And it works.

Why This Strategy Works

Think about what happened here.

You didn't click on an advert that tried to sell you something.

You saw a short video, became curious, and asked for this free PDF.

That small difference is important.

Instead of trying to convince people to buy straight away, this approach simply gives them useful information first. There's no pressure and no obligation. People are free to read the report, decide whether the strategy makes sense, and only then choose whether they want to learn more.

In other words, the PDF isn't what makes the sale.

It builds trust, answers questions and introduces the solution.

That's why giving away something genuinely useful can often be far more effective than simply posting an affiliate link and hoping someone clicks on it.

So if this strategy makes sense, the obvious question becomes...

Why Caboodl?

There are a lot of options you could choose... chances are you have already tried a lot of them, been disappointed with the results, and are still looking for a system that suits you.

Most of us searching for a way to make some money online are regular people just trying to get ahead, many of us aren't as young as we wish we were, most of us aren't flash, techy or super confident.

But I'll bet most of the 'make money online' products you have bought have been created by people who are either young, or flash, or super confident... or all three.

They're certainly not 59 year olds, with no qualifications, who spent 28 years working in construction, didn't start digital marketing until they were 43, and still made over $4,900,000 online.

But Mark, the creator of caboodl, is that person.

He's just an ordinary guy like you or me. He is who he is, has made the money he has, and doesn't have a techy bone in his body. If he can do this, anyone can. And he genuinely practices what he preaches - this is how he actually makes his money.

So how does it work?

Mark's opening paragraph to this document pretty much spells it out 'Yesterday I Gave Away A PDF & Received $349.85'.

After logging into caboodl you put your affiliate link into a document which was already created for you, which becomes your unique PDF.

You then spend roughly 1 hour a day 3-5 times per week uploading 10 second B-Roll videos with text overlays, and value descriptions to Instagram.

Making these videos sounds daunting... but honestly, it's not. You get full training on exactly how to do this, and you do NOT need to be in any way techy.

Note: You don't have to be in the video & you never have to say a word.

At the end of each description you offer free access to your PDF, and give the PDF to anyone who requests it.

The PDF is your sales tool.

A percentage of the people you give the PDF away to will purchase a product through your link which is embedded in your PDF, and when they do, you receive a commission payment.

The commission you receive can be as much as $349.85 for giving your PDF away to one person, but in most cases that 'one person' who buys will equate to $96.85 commission.

From giving away a free PDF... and only to someone who has asked you for it.

Note: There are no limits on how many times you can give away your PDF or how much you can make doing so.

What About Additional Costs?

Another reason for me choosing caboodl over other potential options is the fact that there are no additional costs required.

You don't need to build pages, use page builders, pay for an autoresponder subscription, or pay for traffic.

Yes there are a couple of upgrades which unlock additional features and more commission, but they are optional & never a requirement.

All you need is included with the $17 you'll paid for caboodl, along with a phone, or camera, an internet connection...

And roughly an hour or so of your time, 3-5 times a week.

I mentioned the time it takes last, because while caboodl is great, it only works if you use it. If you don't use it you won't make any money, which I guess is obvious, but sometimes the obvious needs to be stated.

Reservations?

The Price - When I saw the price was just $17, instead of the much higher price I was expecting I had my reservations, and certainly never expected what I received.

This is a $200 solution for under twenty dollars, there really isn't a stone left unturned. It levels the playing field for everyone. It's a solution I believe anyone can use.

Making Videos - Lots of us don't like making videos, but B-Roll is different. There's no talking, or narration used in this type of video, you don't even need to be in the video if you don't want to.

A great example of this is Mark's own video of his dog on the beach.

Followers, Views & Instagram - Think you need 1000s of followers to do this? You don't.

Your first video on a brand new Instagram account will receive views, because Instagram itself pushes your video (provided you set it up the way Mark shows in caboodl)

And if like many of us you already have an Instagram account which you use for sharing family pictures, don't worry, you won't be using that account.

Other Possible Concerns.

- I'm probably too old to do this.
- I don't have any experience.
- I'm not a technical person.
- I don't have an Instagram account.
- I've never made a video before.

None of these concerns will have any bearing on what you can achieve with caboodl.. If you chose to use it.

If you're anything like me, and you're looking for a simple way to make money online, that isn't going to swallow up all of your spare time, isn't going to cost you an arm and a leg, and does include everything you need... this is it.

The only thing left is to decide whether you're going to carry on looking for the perfect business model... or start using one.

A Final Thought.

If you've found this report useful, then you've just experienced the very strategy it's been talking about.

You were given something free that helped explain an idea before being asked to buy anything.
